NEW INTEGRATIVE FUNCTIONS AT THE UNIVERSITY

Law on Higher Education, article 48

The Statute of a higher education institution regulates the internal governance to assure unified and coordinated activities of the higher education institution. However, the University has specific competencies to integrate the functions in the following fields:

1. establishment of unified standards of work of departments and services and unified standards for creating data bases of all units;
2. strategic planning;
3. adoption of study programmes;
4. quality assurance and control;
5. enrolment policy;
6. election of teachers;
7. issuance of diplomas and supplement diplomas;
8. international cooperation;
9. investment planning;
10. employment policy planning and the hiring of teachers and associates;
11. establishment and development of a unified information system;
12. lifelong learning.
